Letter of recommendation for Robert S. Lewis, Architect

It is with the greatest pleasure that I write this letter.

I met Mr. Lewis 4 days ago and my plans are being delivered tomorrow.

I had a mess on my hands as I had just taken over a piece of rental property that I owned that a tenant had started a fire in twelve months ago.

I was in surgery when the fire occurred and made the mistake of my life by giving the job of dealing with the insurance company to an "Adjusting" company to handle for me. During the twelve months the "Adjusting" company had mishandled funds, committed fraud with my mortgage company, hired a contractor and architect for me that were grossly overpaid for doing nothing and were trying to extort more money from me out of the final proceeds from the insurance company's final arbitration check. To make things harder, I have a lung problem and have not been able to go into the burn unit at all. I have never seen it and have to see pictures and ask questions of people. For me to go into it with the toxic air would be life threatening to me.

I did not know everything the "Adjusting" company had done until a few weeks ago when arbitration ended and the "Adjusting" company's job was over and they sent me their final fraudulent invoice.

I had to hire a new contractor and find an architect in order to start the renovation of the burned unit as nothing had been done to it in twelve months. I finally found a contractor through a referral but kept hitting a stone wall on an architect. Then a friend of mine referred Mr. Lewis. I called him and told him my "story" and he met me one day later at the burn unit. He spent hours in the unit taking measurements and pictures inside and outside and then emailed me plans 4 days later to proof and we had printed plans the following day.

I tell the story to convey that Mr. Lewis is compassionate and caring, helpful and responsible, and hearing my story, was extremely fair in his pricing.

I want to thank him for his help and I believe in Karma. What you give, you get back and I wish Mr. Lewis the best that life has to offer.

Sincerely, Phyllis Taber Greenberg
